

Application for membership of Association of Psychotherapists in Iceland, SALM

Application is made to the president / other representative of the association at salm@salm.is. The following information is required in the email: copy of one of the 12 (see below) documents, name, Icelandic ID number, postal address, mobile phone number, short overview of education and experience, specialization and client target group. Full CV is not required. SALM will meet the applicant who brings the original copy of one of these 12 documents of which SALM makes a certified copy. The document must be written in a language that the SALM board understands.

Training from Europe:

1. Certification of training completion from an „Accrediated Psychotherapy Training Institue“ of the European Association for Psychotherapists, EAP; (EAPTI Institutute).
2. Certification of training completion from a training institute that a national psychotherapy association (NAO, a member of EAP), in the country the training took place, accepts or did at time of graduation.
3. Certification of training completion from a training institue that the UKCP psychotherapy association in UK, a „UKCP College“ accepts or did at time of graduation.
4. The „ECP“ European psychotherapy certification by EAP.
5. Certification of membership of a national psychotherapy association that is a member of EAP (NAO), valid or expired.
6. Certification of membership of the UK national psychotherapy association, UKCP, valid or expired.

Training from USA:

7. Certification of training completion: MS in Counseling Psychology from accredited training institute.
8. Certification of training completion: MS in Marriage and Family Therapy from accredited training inst.
9. Certification of training completion: MS in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from accred.training inst.
- 10.-12. USA Licensure in 7, 8 or 9, valid or expired.

If none of these 12 documents are available, the applicant needs to present detailed documents of content and length of the training that demonstrate that the training was in accordance with all the requirements of SALM as stipulated in section III in the Intake Rules of SALM. Applicant is adviced to contact SALM for further guidance of this. This applies to training that took place outside Europe and USA and European and USA training that does not accord to SALM intake rules. SALM intake rules are based on the rules of the European Association for Psychotherapists (EAP).

Applicant signs for adherence to the Ethical Guidelins of SALM. Membership is not granted if applicant has violated the ethical rules of SALM or has lost his/her licensure. If applicant has not informed SALM of this, SALM can cancel any granted memberhip. Fees are paid yearly before 1 March, after that fees are raised by 20% and 1 April membership is no longer valid.